"Competition law is an instrument of national economic and social transformation. It enhances consumer welfare and awakens incumbents, spurs innovation and boosts entrepreneurship thus making markets work equitably for everyone."

Justice P N Bhagwati
former Chief Justice of India,
Member, UN Human Rights Commission

Invitation

Dear All,

The primary aim of competition in the market place is to accelerate growth by broadening the economic and social base to promote innovation & to challenge incumbents and encourage new entrants.

Competition law has become one of the fastest growing areas of economic laws worldwide, and more than 100 countries have already adopted it. These also include emerging economies like China, Thailand, Korea, Malaysia, Singapore etc where stringent competitive regulation is considered to be a first step to the development of market economy.

Building on the success and the foundation laid by the first International Conference on Competition Law (ICCL), the upcoming Second International Conference on Competition Law being organised jointly by the World Council for Corporate Governance and International Academy of Law in association with the India's Ministry of Law & Justice and Competition Appellate Tribunal aims to examine the status of Competition Law in various jurisdictions, with particular reference to the emerging economies such as India.

India has been rightly selected as the venue where a new law - Competition Act, 2002 is in place. With its meteoric growth over the past few years, India is on the edge of an M & A revolution to realize its full potential. The Competition Act, 2002 has completed the first year of enforcement. As a consequence, India's business & industry are eager to understand its role and impact on the strategic objectives of their business.

The Conference aims to disseminate 'state of the art' information and practice on Competition Law in various jurisdictions and provide a learning experience for the Indian and foreign companies, law firms, regulatory and judicial authorities and other stakeholders. It also aims to provide a blueprint on how Competition Law and policy will be developed to become a powerful tool for fair and competitive markets that, in turn, promote sustainable prosperity.

I look forward to welcoming you at the Conference.

Yours faithfully,

Justice P N Bhagwati
Chairman, International Academy of Law

THEME

Competition Law & Policy for Sustainable Prosperity

OBJECTIVES

- To enhance the understanding of Indian Industry of the competition law and its implications for Indian businesses.
- To enable businesses in India to develop internal compliance programmes.
- To enable foreign businesses to obtain an all - encompassing view of the position of competition law and enforcing authorities in India.
- To analyse the progress made by competition law in the first year of its enforcement in India
- To enable sharing of experiences from across the globe, and develop guidance to competition authorities, governance organisations, regulatory bodies and judicial functionaries

CONFERENCE STRUCTURE

In keeping with strongly solution-oriented focus, the conference follows a format to allow, to encourage participants to contribute in a choice of different ways. Panel discussions and Working groups will be established to address key questions.

The findings of each group will be presented and distilled into a volume of Conference proceedings to be distributed among relevant institutions and marketed as the definitive text – with recommendations and guidelines – at the leading edge of global competition law thinking.

BUSINESS OPPORTUNITY FOR LAW FIRMS ENGAGED IN COMPETITION LAW

As such Competition Law is the fastest growing area of economic laws in emerging economies. ICCL will have a large attendance of Indian and international companies who are keen to understand the law. ICCL is an unparalleled, opportunity to project and profile your company's strengths in Competition Law by sponsoring the conference and tap business in the emerging economies.
